President's Message

Dear Members, Donors and Well-wishers,
Namaste

The annual general meeting is scheduled to be held on 28th September, 2025, which will be the last one for the present term of AVOPA. For the last 33 months, lot of activities happened and successfully completed. I am happy to share that we have received substantial donations by way of endowments, building fund, Scholarship fund etc., which is very remarkable in the history of AVOPA. I thank all the members, donors for their unstinted support for the growth of the organization.

Everyone has the potential to become a great leader, some people are born leaders, and others are pushed into leadership by circumstances. A leader sees beyond personal gain, beyond "I, me, mine". The qualities just need to be awakened through continuous learning, intentional self-effort and experience. There have been outstanding leaders in every field, business tycoons, political activity, military generals and social reformers. Yet, the most impartial leaders have been spiritual masters, whose influence outlives their time. When we tap into the spirit within, we rise above physical limitations and intellectual prejudices.

The Bhagavadgita guides us to work in the spirit of yagna – sacrifice and service for a noble cause. In this mindset, success and happiness follow naturally, and we begin to grow into our true potential. Constricted by selfishness, success eludes us. And happiness and growth remain distant dreams.

Leadership is hard work, but it never feels like drudgery when fuelled by inspiration. When we are uninspired, we experience boredom. The same work, driven by emotional motivation, becomes exciting. We break through physical barriers. We become enthusiastic, energetic and creative. Driven by intellectual ideal, we smash through even emotional hang-ups and achieve the impossible. And when we take the mighty leap into the spirit, all barriers break down.

One of the most powerful traits of a leader is their sense of oneness with others. Great leaders see beyond divisions. They find common ground and build unity.

A leader must be objective and rise above partisan, prejudiced views. Take a step back and view the situation from an outsider's perspective. We have to act as if life depends on it, knowing that it does not matter. There is a well-known saying of Shakespeare "All the world is a stage, and all men and women are merely players. They have their entrances and exits. You have a role to play. Play it to the best of your ability. And exit when the time comes".
