President's Message

Dear Members, Donors and Welwishers,

Namaste

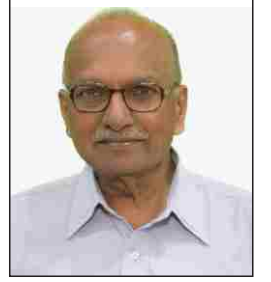

I am happy to note that a very few members have positively acknowledged our request and contributed towards Defence Welfare Fund. We will continue to receive the donations till 31-7-2025 and the collected money along with the donations from the AVOPA Charitable Trust will be remitted to the Defence Welfare Fund. I urge upon all our members, donors and welwishers to contribute liberally to the noble cause.

I sincerely thank Sri Manandi Ramesh who has acceded my long-time persistent request donated a sum of Rs.5 lakhs towards Endowment and Scholarships to the deserving students.

We have lost our long-standing member and donor of AVOPA Sri A. Aswatha on 17/06/2025. Our heartfelt condolences to the bereaved family members.

I remember a famous couplet of Tulasidas "when we come into the world, we cry and the world laughs. Our time and actions in the world should be such that when we, leave, the world cries and we laugh". In recent months, we have witnessed several heartbreaking tragedies. Many dreams have been snuffed out in seconds, reminding us how transient life is. In the Mahabharata, the yaksha asked Dharmaraya what is the most wondrous thing in the world. Dharmaraya replied, "We see countless dying, but it does not occur to us that we will also die one day". We do not realize that death is also stalking us like a shadow. We must accept death. Let us love our family and friends as a trustee of the Lord. Let us fulfil our aspirations, break boundaries, and expand our lives. Let us work for others and contribute to society with time and money. Fear of death will slowly vanish. Humanistic impulses will flourish.

The happiness of our life depends upon the quality of our thoughts. Karma is not a punishment. It is a mirror. It reflects what you have sown – sometimes in this life, sometimes long before. You are not suffering randomly. You are just being brought back to balance. Karma is how the universe remembers, when you forget. You may not remember what you did in a past life. But your soul remembers the lesson it still needs to learn. So if life feels unfair, look deeper. The event may not your fault – but the lesson is yours to grow firm. Karma is not only about action- it is also about the intention behind it. An act you do with love creates peace. The same act with ego creates bondage. What matters is your state of mind, not just your action. Sometime karma is not here to punish-but to purify. A heartbreak, a betrayal, a delay.. may be grace in disguise. The storm you are facing might be clearing karma from ten life times. Your karma is not against you. It is you-trying to wake you upto your own truth. So learn to walk through it with grace. Not to escape it- but to evolve through it. That is how you live your life consciously. Good karma brings ease. Bad karma brings lessons. But both are meant to evolve you- not to trap you. So, do not ask 'why is this happening to me? Ask instead- 'what is this trying to teach me? We hear so much about karma- good karma, bad karma and past life karma. But what is karma, really? Why do we suffer for livings we do not remember doing? Sometimes life feels out of control because you are trying to fix what was meant to be felt. Karma does not always need to be fixed. Sometimes, it just needs to be experienced- so that your soul can complete its circle.
